

6 APR - Mrs. Milton (Jane) McCall from Pittsburgh, who was introduced to you by Jack Fitzpatrick of the World Affairs Council & her neighbor, called to invite you to address the 20th Century Club in Pittsburgh in October. Club is made up of wives of leading industrialists and academics. Their program runs from October through March and they are hoping that you can address them in October. I explained that you would probably no longer be in this job at that time and that might make a difference in their choice, but she unhesitatingly indicated that they wanted you regardless of that. They meet on Monday mornings and the session would be from 1100 to 1200. [redacted] Pittsburgh, 15217) [redacted] I told her I would check with you and let her know. STAT

Dear General Walters,

The committee were delighted to learn of your acceptance for November eighth, at The Twentieth Century Club.

We should appreciate your arriving the night before. Would you like us to make a reservation for you, at The University Club? This is where most of our people enjoy staying.

Your talk should be about an hour in length. The scheduled time is eleven o'clock on Monday morning. I shall call for you at 10:30.

We shall want you to be our guest, at luncheon, following your talk. I should think you could plan to be finished by one thirty.

I should appreciate your giving me the exact title for your talk. I'm sure your subject will be C.I.A., but how would you like to have it rounded in our program?

I'd also appreciate a few biographical facts, if they are readily available. We go to print in about two weeks.

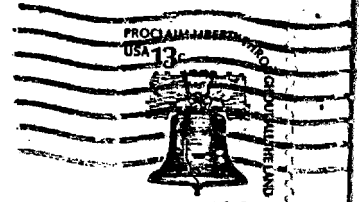

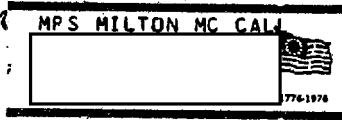

Please tell me approximately what your expenses will be, because we shall be more than happy to take care of everything involved.

I'm looking forward to seeing you, and to hearing you again.

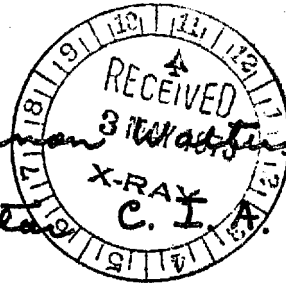

Sincerely,

Jane McCall
